We collect data from our members only for the purpose of running the Society efficiently and effectively.

We use the data that you have given us on this membership application form, or by attending our meetings or other events, only for the purposes that you would expect. This includes the administration of your membership and keeping you informed of our lectures, short breaks, study days and other events.

These details will be processed fairly and lawfully in order to satisfy the agreement entered with you on your admittance to membership. This will ensure that you receive the latest news and information about all upcoming events.

If you have provided us with your email address (which is optional), we will occasionally send you emails which we hope are interesting and informative. However, you can unsubscribe from receiving these emails at any time, either directly online after receiving an email or by informing the Membership Secretary of your wishes.

Members' details will be passed to "The Arts Society" to allow them to mail you the quarterly magazine and other communications including information about any upcoming national events or items of legitimate interest.

As a member of The Arts Society Royal Leamington Spa, you have the right to know what data we hold about you and how we use it.

Members' details may be passed to "The Arts Society West Midlands Area", or other affiliated societies, for the purposes of disseminating relevant information of legitimate interest.

Your details will be kept safely and securely and you have the ability to opt out of our communications at any time.

Your Committee has agreed a Data Management Policy which sets all this out in detail. This Policy can be downloaded from our website, www.tasrls.org.uk/privacy. It shows what data we collect and store about our members, what we use it for and how we keep it safe.

If you have any questions about the privacy of your personal data, please contact any Committee member.
